DOC SEAMANS CANADIAN SPORT GRANT

In partnership with the Calgary Foundation Doc Seamans Canadian Sports Grant, Dare to Care is excited to collaborate with 10 Canadian sport organizations as we work to tackle bullying in sport! This grant opportunity will provide organizations with a 50% discount on three Dare to Care sessions (total value of $975). These impactful workshops will educate on Safe Sport practices, raise awareness on diversity, equity and inclusion in sport, and assist your organization to create a safe, welcoming and positive sport experience for all members.

More information about our programs, this funding opportunity, and how to apply are outlined below. Grants will be awarded on a first-come-first-served basis to sport organizations who meet all the necessary requirements. Contact us at lisa@daretocare.ca to take advantage of this amazing opportunity to strengthen the culture at your organization!

ABOUT DARE TO CARE

Dare to Care was founded in 1999 to address the pervasive and crippling impact that bullying continues to have on children, youth and adults to this day. In 2019 this program expanded to the sports sector where it has made a meaningful, immediate and lasting impact. Today Dare to Care is the most practical and comprehensive bully prevention program in Canada. This proven and award-winning program has worked with more than one million participants across Canada and continues to create communities where bullying behaviour is unacceptable and kindness becomes the dominant force. Through emphasizing topics of Safe Sport and Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Dare to Care is creating a lasting impact in the Canadian sports landscape and beyond.
